As a Team Manager, you'll:

Manage an allocated section of a department

Help other managers with the day-to-day running of the store

Lead a team of Retail Assistants in your section

Manage the till area as needed

Help with customer feedback and complaints

Choose stock based on what your customers like

BRING YOUR SKILLS - AND MAKE YOUR PRIMARK!

You don't need a fashion background, but you do need:

- Previous leadership experience
- Excellent people skills
- Customer service experience
- Great commercial awareness
- To know how to support a team to get results
- To thrive in a super-fast-paced place like ours

HOW FAR CAN YOU GO?

Our Team Manager roles are fast, dynamic and a valuable next step in your retail career. But what comes after that? Well, with so many senior roles in more than 400+ stores around the world (and growing!), there are countless ways your future might pan out. Here's one of the more regular pathways.

Department Manager

You've kept customers smiling and on-trend in your section. Now, you're taking on a full department.

Assistant Store Manager

You already know what to do to make the store special. Now you support and stand in for the Store Manager as needed.

Store Manager

You've seized every moment and made your store the place to be. Now it's time to manage your own!

Area Manager

You've thrilled customers in a store of your own. Now it's time to oversee 10 or more stores, or perhaps a flagship in London, Birmingham or Manchester.

REWARDS AND BENEFITS

Career opportunities throughout the UK and around the world

Online and offline learning and development courses

Employee discounts in store

31 days annual leave

Great salary: £28,372
